

- Is evidence of the measurable element's requirement present or available?
- Which patients or units are affected by the standard or a measurable element?
- If a requirement is an activity that must be performed or accomplished within a particular time frame, is that time frame being met? Is there evidence of this?
- Is the requirement in a measurable element being met completely, effectively, and appropriately?
- Is practice consistent with policy?